

Auswärtiges Amt

Prof. Dr. Andreas
Zimmermann LL.M. (Harvard)

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c.
Christian Tomuschat

Dr. Karin Oellers-Frahm

Prof. Christian J. Tams,
LL.M. (Cambridge)

funded by

International Conference:
The International Court of Justice
- Current Challenges -

Programme

January 16, 2014:

- 12:00 Arrival of participants/ registration
- 13:00 Light lunch
- 14:00 Welcome, Opening Remarks and General Introduction
Dr. Martin Ney, Prof. Christian Tomuschat, Prof. Andreas Zimmermann

Panel 1: Chair Prof. Christian Tomuschat

- 14:15 – 14:45 Jurisdiction: Consensualism and Its Discontents, Alina Miron
- 14:45 – 15:00 Comment, Prof. Alain Pellet
- 15:00 – 15:45 Discussion
- 15:45 – 16:00 Coffee break

Panel 2: Chair Prof. Andreas Zimmermann

- 16:00 – 16:30 Determining the Law: The Court's Methodology between Induction and Deduction,
Prof. Stefan Talmon
- 16:30 – 16:45 Comment, Judge Bruno Simma
- 16:45 – 17:30 Discussion
- 19:00 Keynote speech: The World Court at 90 - the Changing Face of International Adjudication, Prof. James Crawford (venue tbc)
- 20:00 Dinner

January 17, 2014:

9:00 Coffee

Panel 3: Chair Dr. Karin Oellers-Frahm

9:30 – 10:00 The World Court and ‘Others’: What Role for Specialised Bodies?,

Prof. Marcelo Kohen

10:00 – 10:15 Comment, Judge Christopher Greenwood

10:15 – 10:45 Coffee break

Panel 3: Chair Prof. Christian Tams

10:45 – 11:15 The World Court and ‘Others’: Non-parties in ICJ Proceedings,

Prof. Laurence Boisson de Chazournes

11:15 – 11:30 Comment, Judge Mohamed Bennouna

11.30 – 12.15 Discussion

12:15 – 13.15 Concluding discussion: The ICJ – Current Challenges

President Peter Tomka, Dr. Martin Ney, Prof. Alain Pellet, Judge Bruno Simma

13.15 – 14.00 Lunch/ departure

Venue: Berlin-Tegel, ‘Villa Borsig’ Guesthouse German Foreign Office