Call for Papers – 1st ECONtribute WIMLEEH WORKSHOP

Women in Macroeconomics, Law and Economics, and Economic History
Bonn, Germany, June 19-20, 2023

The aim of the workshop is to bring together female academic researchers to promote and exchange ideas in the fields of Macroeconomics, Law and Economics, and Economic History. The conference will facilitate and support the formation of professional networks among female economists.

The 1st ECONtribute Workshop for Women in Macroeconomics, Law and Economics and Economic History is organized by the ECONtribute Cluster of Excellence and the University of Bonn. This two-day workshop will be held in person at the Universitätsclub Bonn, Germany on June 19-20, 2023.

Each conference day will include a keynote lecture as well as sessions with contributed papers and discussions. Keynote lectures will be delivered by Christine Binzel (FAU Erlangen/Nürnberg) and Monika Gehrig-Merz (Universität Wien). Invited speakers will also share some of their experiences and insights of pursuing a career in their field.

We invite empirical as well as experimental contributions from a broad range of topics within Macroeconomics, Law and Economics, Economic History, and related fields, including, but not limited to:

- Social and wealth inequality
- Legal frameworks and behavioral finance
- Current and historical development of institutions and cultural norms
- Distributional effects of (macroeconomic) policies and legal rules
- Macroeconomic implications of climate change

Paper submission:

Female researchers interested in presenting should send a full paper or extended abstract in PDF format as well as information on the paper title, name(s) of author(s), and contact details to wimleeh@gmail.com. Early career scholars are especially encouraged to apply.
